

NEWS RELEASE

Media Contact:

Sarah Ardalani
Public Information Officer
213-257-2000
SArdalani@da.lacounty.gov
Twitter: @LADAOOffice

Oct. 22, 2015

Former Teacher's Aide Sentenced to Jail for Sexually Molesting Student

A former teacher's aide was sentenced to jail today for having a sexual relationship with a high school student, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

At today's court appearance, Brandy Leah Wilborn, 39, of Pomona pleaded no contest to a felony count of unlawful sexual intercourse in case KA109700.

Los Angeles County Superior Court Commissioner Wade Olsen immediately sentenced the defendant to one year in county jail and five years of formal probation. Additionally, Wilborn was ordered to attend sexual compulsion classes for a year.

Deputy District Attorney Kelsey McKeever-Unger, who prosecuted the case, said between January and May of this year, Wilborn had a sexual relationship with a 16-year-old male student.

School officials alerted authorities about the defendant's contact with the teenager and law enforcement began an investigation, the prosecutor said.

Wilborn was arrested on May 8 and posted bond the same day.

The case was investigated by the Claremont Police Department.

#

About the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office

Los Angeles County District Attorney Jackie Lacey leads the largest local prosecutorial office in the nation. Her staff of nearly 1,000 attorneys, 300 investigators and 800 support staff members is dedicated to seeking justice for victims of crime and enhancing public safety. Last year, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office prosecuted more than 71,000 felony defendants and nearly 112,000 misdemeanor defendants.